

ArCS II International Law Research Program Study Group the 3rd meeting

Co-organized by Int'l Relations Program

The recent Arctic legal and political developments in light of Ukraine crisis

Speaker : Prof. Alexander Sergunin

JSPS Invited Researcher

Invited Professor, GSICS, Kobe University

School of International Relations, St. Petersburg State University

2022 May 31th Tue 13:30 - 15:00

Format : Online

Participants : ArCS II program members

Closed seminar, Invitation only

Talking Point

- Russian extended continental shelf and its consideration by the UN sub-committee
- Recent developments in the legal status of Northern Sea Route
- Spill-over effects of the Ukraine crisis's new phase for the Arctic
- Remaining opportunities for regional cooperation in light of Ukraine crisis

Recent Publication

Erokhin V., Tianming G., Konyshchev V., Sergunin A. The Northern Sea Route development: the Russian perspective, Arctic Maritime Logistics: The Potentials and Challenges of the Northern Sea Route. Ed. by I. Ilin, T. Devezas, C. Jahn. Cham: Springer, 2022, pp. 283-303.